To whoever stole Pelosi's laptop: The FBI is asking that you please bring it to The FBI's Warehouse for Incriminating Laptops; there, it can spend the rest of its days with thousands of laptops once owned by our "leaders," all full of snuff films, child porn, and bank records written in Mandarin. 15 Yup, there were two man military teams in the Capital. They took her laptop, and the laptops of others.

4 Also, kind of interesting how some of the security were letting people in.

10 ▼ Myself (I was in the Capital) and this video....

Go to <https://banned.video/watch?id=5ff6857e00bac0328da8e888> Forward it to the 28 minute mark.

Pay attention to the two guys in camo with the gas masks. Everyone there is excited, looking around, taking vid/photos...not these two guys. Pay attention to them. They briefly talk to each other, then they move towards Pelosi's office with intent. They're not looking around, they're not taking vid/pics, they're not exhibiting any excitement about being there. They're on a mission.

In the one chamber I was in, I saw two of the same guys (not the actual same guys, but wearing camo and gas masks). Again, everyone in there was excited, gawking around, taking vid/pics, except those two guys. They stood side by side, heads forward, not moving at all (they were like fucking statues), just waiting for the police to allow us to move forward from that chamber. At the time, it did strike me as very odd, but I didn't know what to make of it. They stood out from the rest of the crowd.

9 ▼ I've been thinking about this actually...so a lot of things didn't make sense to me about what happened at the Capitol. Trump tells everyone to go there, then he seems to just...vanish without a trace. During the chaos, Nancy's laptop gets stolen.

What was the purpose of having all those people go to the Capitol? Of course the mainstream narrative is that he unleashed a mob of angry people in a seditious act to say fuck you to Congress. Trump definitely used the crowd for some purpose...but for what? With what you are saying...I think it makes sense now.

8 ▼ those two are legit. They look like they are in actual military uniforms, not LARP uniforms.

▼ I think it was. They used the chaos and the crowd to provide cover for these teams to operate.
